

ANNUAL REPORT

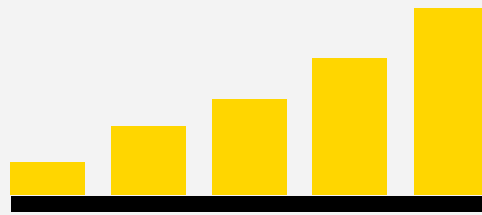

2018-2019

Number of declared students as of May 2019

ENTERPRISE LEADERSHIP

833

Majors

One of the Fastest Growing Majors on UI's Campus

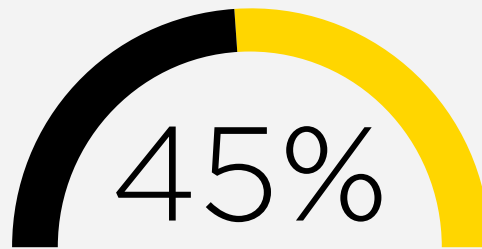

Enterprise Leadership is designed specifically for students wanting to focus on business and entrepreneurial leadership. The major promotes critical thinking, creativity, and innovation through understanding how to strategically address complex issues to meet consumer and organizational needs. The major is administered by the John Pappajohn Entrepreneurial Center (Iowa JPEC).

GLOBAL HEALTH STUDIES

135

Majors

89

 Minors and Certificates

of GHS Majors Identify as Underrepresented Minorities

Global Health Studies students are involved in meaningful experiences both inside and outside of the classroom. In AY 2018-19, students participated in MHIRT research in Romania, completed internships in India, received Stanley Research Awards (India and Spain), a Gilman Scholarship (South Africa), and a Boren Scholarship (Tanzania).

INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

109

Majors

18

 Minors

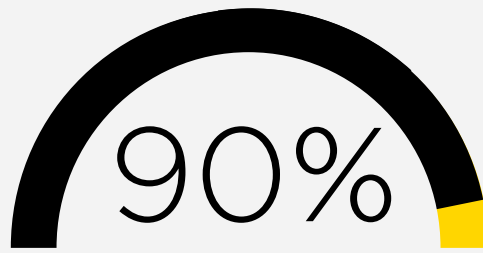

of IS Majors Identify as Underrepresented Minorities

International Studies students develop cross-cultural skills through local and global engagement. In AY 2018-19, IS student achievements included a Critical Language Scholarship (South Korea), Stanley-funded research presented at the Iowa City Foreign Relations Council, blogging for UI Study Abroad (South Korea), and a Boren Fellowship (IS alum/Brazil).

LATINA/O STUDIES

58

Minors
Doubled since 2017-18

of Latina/o Studies Minors Identify as Underrepresented Minorities

The Latina/o Studies Program experienced tremendous growth that we look forward to continuing with new partnerships across campus. In 2018, unit faculty were awarded an Andrew W. Mellon Foundation Sawyer Seminar grant ($225,000) for “Imagining Latinidades: Articulations of National Belonging,” which is a series of events occurring during the 2019-2020 academic year.

LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES

15

Certificates and Minors

Mauricio Tenorio-Trillo (University of Chicago)
presented “History’s Autobiography”

Latin American Studies students are engaged locally and globally: students served as Latin American Studies student ambassadors and studied abroad in Brazil, Argentina and Cuba.

MAGID CENTER FOR UNDERGRADUATE WRITING

213

Writing Certificate Students
2nd Highest in CLAS

14 Student Publications
850 Pages of Student Work
100+ Students in Staff Positions

IOWA YOUTH WRITING PROJECT

1,815 youth reached, 28 UI student interns, 212 volunteers, 30 weekly programs, 18 summer camps, 49 special events

IOWA YOUNG WRITERS’ STUDIO

769 applicants, 145 accepted students, 144 students enrolled in online courses, 36 states and 16 non-US countries represented

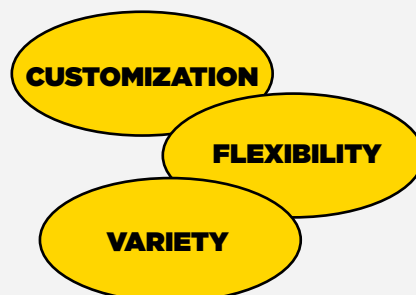

IOWA SUMMER WRITING FESTIVAL

106 weeklong and weekend workshops, 65 internationally renowned faculty members, 885 adult learners, 10 different genres

INTERDEPARTMENTAL STUDIES

271

Majors

Reasons Why Students Choose
Interdepartmental Studies

The engaged social innovation track has been reopened and a technology and inquiry emphasis area has been added to the business studies track.